

Aaron Clapper, MPPA Senior Manager of Outreach and Projects

aclapper@greaterohio.org

As Senior Manager of Outreach and Projects, Aaron manages multiple policy projects to assist the organization in advancing and championing a statewide agenda of revitalization and economic prosperity. Aaron's main focus area is GOPC's brownfields policy work. Aaron also assists the organization with coalition-building and research projects, and manages the organization's Reinvention Cities Network.

Aaron earned his Master's in Public Policy and Administration from Northwestern University. Prior to his time in Chicago, Aaron graduated from The Ohio State University with a degree in Public Affairs from the John Glenn College of Public Affairs. Throughout Aaron's academic and professional experiences, he has worked on numerous policy issues – most recently, on human services policy work.

Aaron serves as an adviser to the Ohio State chapter of the Delta Sigma Phi Fraternity, where he was a brother during his undergraduate years.
