

Sarah V. Lown Public Financing Manager

slow@westernreserveport.com

Sarah Lown has worked for more than 20 years in community and economic development in the Mahoning Valley, specializing in brownfield remediation and urban redevelopment. She also served as adjunct faculty at Youngstown State University in for 23 years.

Since 1998, Sarah sought and received 25 state and federal remediation grants, over $5 million in clean-up dollars has since been invested in the Youngstown region.

Sarah has been actively involved in building the civic and physical infrastructure of the urban core cities in the Youngstown region. She coordinates the Mahoning River Mayors Association, the Mahoning River Consortium, the Mahoning River Corridor Initiative and several non-profits whose mission relates to urban revitalization.